

Wellbeing for learning and life

Charleville State School commitment to learning and wellbeing

LEARNING ENVIRONMENT

A positive school ethos and rich learning environment that is open, respectful, caring and safe optimises learning through a commitment to wellbeing.

Charleville State School does this by:

- Providing a safe supportive school environment, underpinned by School Wide Positive Behaviour Support practice.
- Committing to our four school values – Be Safe, Be respectful, Be Responsible, Be an active learner
- Differentiating students' academic and behavioural needs to ensure maximum engagement
- Commitment to continuous professional development for all staff
- Encouraging all students to do their best.
- Encouraging students to attend every day

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

Policy intentions are transformed into action by school staff, students and the wider community.

Charleville State School does this by:

- The school's approach to learning and wellbeing
- School policies and procedures relevant to student wellbeing
- School community involvement in school operations relevant to student wellbeing
- Review and evaluation of school operations relevant to student wellbeing
- Professional development programs to support policies being enacted by the school

CURRICULUM AND PEDAGOGY

Curriculum that enhances wellbeing equips students with the knowledge, skills, attitudes and strategies to understand and manage themselves and their relationships.

Pedagogy that enhances wellbeing builds positive relationships.

Charleville State School does this by:

- Implementing Australian Curriculum for all students
- Embedding of social and emotional learning capabilities through SWPBS framework
- Extracurricular activities for students
- Supporting all staff to renew their skills, and develop their areas of need
- Implementing a whole school Pedagogical framework that is consistently adhered to across the school
- Supporting students with special needs

PARTNERSHIPS

Productive partnerships expand the knowledge, skills and resources available in the school

Charleville State School does this by:

- Positive relationships with students
- School partnerships that support wellbeing
- Professional development programs that support these partnerships
- Regularly acknowledging our volunteers and other partners in learning
- Encouraging parents to regularly engage in classroom learning
